Code of Practice

This code of conduct specifies the manner in which Holly Grove Primary will use and make available photographic images of pupils.

The school will:

1. Inform parent(s)/carers(s) and others present at school events that photographs /videos may be taken on the basis that they are for their personal use / private retention and not for publication in any manner.
2. Not use photographs in any form of internal or external publication where there is written objection from a parent/guardian.
3. Not use photographs of pupils in swimwear.
4. Not reveal within the image personal details, such as pupils' full names, date of birth, home address or telephone number.
5. Not use photographs of pupils wearing their night attire on school visits.
